

JCCL - 2014

Summary Table of Contents

Preface	v
Table of Contents	xi
Table of Cases	xvii
Directors' and Officers' Liability Insurance: A Tool for Managing Personal and Corporate Risk in Construction Activities
D. Geoffrey Machum, Q.C., and Tipper McEwan	1
Where Dispute Resolution Boards Do Not Work
Harvey J. Kirsh	25
Mary Carter and Pierringer Agreements: Characteristics, Differences, and Pitfalls
Brian Samuels	43
Anti-Corruption Legislation In the United States (An Introduction)
Douglas S. Oles	67
Integrated Project Delivery Agreement—A Lawyer's Perspective
Howard W. Ashcraft, Jr	105
Les règles de l'art en droit de la construction: l'obligation d'agir en s'y conformant et revue de 20 ans d'application de l'article 2100 du Code civil du Québec
M ^e Bernard P. Quinn	157
Index	181

Table of Contents

Directors' and Officers' Liability Insurance: A Tool for Managing Personal and Corporate Risk in Construction Activities

Editor's Note	1
1. INTRODUCTION.....	2
2. A RECAP ON D&O LIABILITY	3
3. AN OVERVIEW OF THE USE AND STRUCTURE OF D&O INSURANCE POLICIES.....	6
4. A CLOSER LOOK AT EXCLUSIONS IN D&O POLICIES.....	11
4.1 Bodily Injury Exclusion	12
4.2 Prior Act Exclusion.....	17
4.3 Pollution Exclusion	18
4.4 Insured v. Insured Exclusion.....	20
5. OTHER DEVELOPING TOPICS	21
5.1 Self-insured retentions, insolvency, and coverage	21
5.2 D&O Trusts	22
6. CONCLUSION.....	23

Where Dispute Resolution Boards Do Not Work

Editor's Note	25
1. SUCCESS OF DISPUTE RESOLUTION BOARDS IN THE CONSTRUCTION INDUSTRY.....	27
2. CORNERSTONE VALUES OF DRBs	29
3. ARE THE REPORTS ABOUT DRBS UNIFORMLY POSITIVE?	29
4. CASE STUDY OF A CURRENT SUBWAY CONSTRUCTION AND TUNNELING PROJECT	30
5. SELECTION OF DRB PANEL FOR SUBWAY PROJECT	30

6.	INITIAL ORGANIZATION OF THE DRB	32
7.	THE HEARING PROCESS.....	33
8.	THE DRB'S FINDINGS AND RECOMMENDATIONS.....	35
9.	AN ANECDOTAL CASE STUDY REGARDING ADMISSIBILITY	38
10.	EPILOGUE: THE COMMERCIAL CONSEQUENCES OF THE DRB PROCESS.....	40

Mary Carter and Pierringer Agreements: Characteristics, Differences, and Pitfalls

Editor's Note	43
1.	INTRODUCTION.....	44
2.	MARY CARTER AGREEMENTS	45
3.	PIERRINGER AND BC FERRIES AGREEMENTS.....	45
4.	THE DISCLOSURE RULE.....	46
5.	THE MISCHIEF BEHIND THE RULE.....	47
6.	EXAMPLES INVOLVING JURIES.....	52
7.	WHY MARY CARTER AGREEMENTS ARE SOMETIMES NECESSARY	53
8.	A TRAP FOR THE UNWARY: RELEASE VERSUS COVENANT NOT TO SUE	55
9.	PIERRINGER AGREEMENTS IN PRACTICE.....	55
10.	SAMPLE TERMS OF A PIERRINGER / BC FERRIES AGREEMENT.....	57
11.	PROFESSIONAL CODES OF CONDUCT.....	59
12.	THE DANGER OF DOUBLE RECOVERY	61
13.	DISCLOSURE ORDERED PURSUANT TO SUBROGATION RIGHTS	63
14.	RELEVANCE AND MATERIALITY	64
15.	CONCLUSION.....	66

Anti-Corruption Legislation In the United States (An Introduction)

Editor's Note	67
1. INTRODUCTION.....	68
2. HISTORY OF ANTI-CORRUPTION LEGISLATION IN THE UNITED STATES	69
3. MAJOR PROSECUTIONS	74
4. CASE LAW	76
5. NEW INDUSTRIES	78
6. MORALITY	79
7. THE FOREIGN CORRUPT PRACTICES ACT	79

Integrated Project Delivery Agreement—A Lawyer's Perspective

Editor's Note	105
1. INTRODUCTION.....	106
2. APPROACHING IPD NEGOTIATION.....	107
2.1 Collaborative Negotiation	107
2.2 Changing Mindset	110
3. KEY ELEMENTS OF INTEGRATED PROJECT DELIVERY AGREEMENTS	112
3.1 IPD Contract Objectives.....	112
3.2 The New Business Model	113
3.3 The New Contract Model.....	117
3.4 Five Micro-framework Elements (and why)	126
4. PRINCIPAL NEGOTIATION ISSUES.....	130
4.1 Project Dimensions.....	131
4.2 Project Scope	134
4.3 Management and Decision Making	136
4.4 Compensation	137
4.5 Target Setting	141
4.6 Contingencies and Adjustments to Targets.....	145

4.7	Allowable Costs and Profit.....	148
4.8	Measuring Performance	150
4.9	Risk Allocation.....	151
5.	SUBSIDIARY NEGOTIATION ISSUES.....	153
5.1	Subcontractors, Consultants, and Joining Agreements	153
5.2	Document Ownership.....	154
5.3	Building Information Modeling	155
5.4	Dispute Resolution.....	155
6.	CURRENT IPD CONTRACTS	155
7.	CONCLUSION.....	156

“Les règles de l’art en droit de la construction: l’obligation d’agir en s’y conformant et revue de 20 ans d’application de l’article 2100 du Code civil du Québec

Editor’s Note	157
1.	INTRODUCTION.....	159
2.	DÉFINITION DES RÈGLES DE L’ART	160
3.	LES EFFETS JURIDIQUES DES RÈGLES DE L’ART	160
4.	OBLIGATION DE RÉSULTAT	166
5.	LE MANQUEMENT À L’OBLIGATION DE SE CONFORMER AUX RÈGLES DE L’ART COMME FONDEMENT CONTRACTUEL DISTINCT D’UN DROIT D’ACTION	167
6.	LE CARACTÈRE ÉVOLUTIF DES RÈGLES DE L’ART ET LA DÉTERMINATION DES RÈGLES DE L’ART APPLICABLES SELON L’ÉPOQUE DE LA CONCEPTION ET DE LA CONSTRUCTION	168
7.	LES FACTEURS CLIMATIQUES OU LOCAUX DANS L’APPLICATION DES RÈGLES DE L’ART.....	170
8.	LES SOURCES DES RÈGLES DE L’ART ET LES MOYENS DE PREUVE.....	171

8.1	Les instructions ou guides fournis par les fabricants d'équipements ou matériaux entrant dans la construction des immeubles.....	172
8.2	Les normes ou standards publiés par les organismes de normalization.....	172
8.3	Le Code de construction, les lois et les règlements contenant des prescriptions obligatoires eu égard à l'ouvrage à construire.....	173
8.4	Le Code national du bâtiment — Canada CNB	176
8.5	Les publications scientifiques ou techniques utilisées à des fins d'enseignement des professions ou métiers ou servant à la dissémination du savoir le plus recent	177
9.	CERTAINES DÉCISIONS TRAITANT DE L'OBLIGATION DE SE CONFORMER AUX RÈGLES DE L'ART	177
10.	CONCLUSION.....	179